

CAU in the News

July 2013

Community Access Unlimited's mission is to provide community access through effective and comprehensive support services for people with disabilities and at-risk youth, giving them the opportunity to live independently and to lead normal and productive lives in the community.

LOCAL YOUTH TO HOLD "AN EVENING WITH THE ARTS" TO RAISE FUNDS FOR AT-RISK YOUTH AND PEOPLE WITH DISABILITIES

Community Access Unlimited youth members and special guests to perform

Elizabeth, NJ – July 5, 2013 – The Youth members of Community Access Unlimited (CAU), which supports people with disabilities and at-risk youth, will present "An Evening of the Arts" Friday, July 12, 7:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m. at 88 West Grand St. Elizabeth, NJ 07202.

Members of CAU's Transitional Opportunities Program (TOP) and special guests will perform visual, literary and performing arts featuring: music; dance; fashion and design; photography and art; and spoken word, cinema and theater. TOP members are youth who are either within or who have aged out of the youth services system.

Admission is $5. Door raffle prizes and light refreshments will be provided. All proceeds will benefit CAU's Ira Geller Walk-A-Thon, which raises funds to support the agency's services and programs. CAU enables people with disabilities and at-risk youth to live independent and fulfilled lives within the community through programs that include housing, vocation and life skills training and advocacy, as well as others.

For more information contact Kashif Wright at 908.965.6853 or KWright@caunj.org, or visit www.caunj.org.

What: "An Evening of the Arts"

Who: Members of Community Access Unlimited Transitional Opportunities Program and special guests

When: Friday, July 12 – 7:00 p.m.-10:00 p.m.

Where: 88 West Grand St. Elizabeth, NJ 07202

Cost: $5