

2012 Travel Brochure

Community Access Unlimited

Community Access Unlimited is a non-profit social service agency that provides individualized social and support services to people with disabilities that enable them to live as independently as possible in the community of their choice.

Don't miss your opportunity to take part in another year of exciting adventures!!!

Dear Traveling Friend,

Inside this packet are 2012's exciting traveling opportunities from Community Access Unlimited. Each vacation will be fully supervised by trained Community Access staff.

A pre-vacation planning meeting will be held for each vacation to discuss the trip in greater detail. All participants are required to attend these important meetings. We will review vacation plans, itineraries, and packing instructions so that everyone will be well prepared for the trip. These planning meetings will be scheduled prior to each vacation. Further details will be provided when you sign up for each trip.

Prices are listed on each page. These rates vary depending on if you are a member of Community Access Unlimited or not. These rates are also subject to change.

If you are not a member of Community Access, please consider joining for the following reasons:

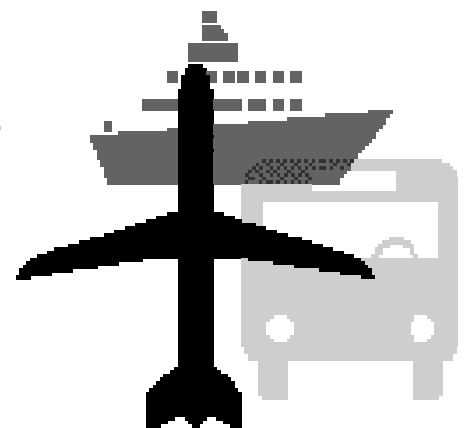

- ◆ Reduced rates for all trips
- ◆ All trips will include free transportation home from all events
- ◆ Access to the agency member only events such as our Summer Picnic and Winter Holiday Party

How to sign up?

Once you have decided on the trips that interest you, please contact the Recreation Department to sign up. You must make your first payment in order to save your reservation. If you would like assistance saving for your trip, we can help you to create a payment plan.

Please call 908-354-3040
