What is Hurtjohn?

Hurtjohn Open Stage is a collaboration of talents in the urban community. Both a mixture of intense performances and raw talent, Hurtjohn Open Stage, allows artists to inspire and leave a lasting impression on the stage.

Why do we do what we do?

Hurtjohn was the succession to an economy that did not support the arts without a major sponsor. Its inception allowed artists to showcase their work alongside others who wanted the same thing –freedom of expression. Open Stage creates a bridge between the neighboring metropolitan cities and cultural enthusiasts.

How did we get here?

Hurtjohn started as a small bi-monthly open stage, however, throughout time has emerged and grown into a liaison between the best talent of NJ and art industry's resources. It has proven on a community level that shows of this magnitude procreate action and inspiration. Elizabeth, NJ, a non art community based in the northern half of the state, now has numerous events by artists of the community who have come through Open Stage to go on and make their events a permanent implementation of the art community. We have established ourselves as "THE" art talent sponsors in NJ.

What's our next move?

Though it may seem we have outsized our weight class, NYC offers the opportunity and culture that Open Stage has always envisioned. In coming to NYC, Hurtjohn Open Stage plans on being the bridge between underground artists and mainstream connectivity. We are the only trusted source and business reviving communities, while providing them a chance for a better tomorrow; now, in a city that never sleeps.

CREATIVITY WITH A CONSCIENCE'S AMAZING PEOPLE

If you are an individual with a disability and have a story, article, or poem with a corresponding visual art image expressing and/or illustrating your experiences with creativity and disability, and you are also actively involved in building awareness regarding disability issues, Creativity with a Conscience would like to recognize and feature your work in "Creativity with a Conscience's Amazing People." Artists are invited to submit images with corresponding written work with a 500 word maximum. There are no fees involved and you do not have to be a professional artist. This is an ongoing event through the Center for Diversified Art.

See Meghan for submission guidelines.

Aesop's delightful fables of wit and wisdom, including The Stag at the Pool, The Tortoise and the Hare, The Fox and the Grapes, The Wind and the Sun, and The Lion and the Mouse come to life through large and colorful puppets. We also meet Aesop himself, in his Greek toga, with his dog Moral by his side. Other beloved characters, ingeniously created from paper bags, newspaper and cardboard boxes, make their appearance to the enchanting music of Scarlatti, Beethoven, Rossini and Chopin, inspiring the child in all of us.

RECIPE PICK!

Fried Green Tomatoes

Instructions:

1 Cut unpeeled tomatoes into 1/2 inch slices. Sprinkle slices with salt. Let tomato slices stand for 5 minutes. Meanwhile, place in separate shallow bowls: the flour and Cajun seasoning (if using), buttermilk and egg, and bread crumbs and cornmeal.

2 Heat the peanut oil in a skillet on medium heat. Beat the egg and the buttermilk together. Dip tomato slices in the flour-seasoning mix, then buttermilk-egg mixture, then the cornmeal-bread crumb mix. In the skillet, fry half of the coated tomato slices at a time, for 3-5 minutes on each side or until brown. Set the cooked tomatoes on paper towels to drain.

Ingredients:

- 3 medium, firm green tomatoes
- Salt
- 1 cup all-purpose flour
- 1 Tbsp Cajun seasoning (optional)
- 1/2 cup milk or buttermilk
- 1 egg
- 1/3 cup cornmeal
- 1/2 cup fine dry bread crumbs
- 1/4 cup peanut oil or other vegetable oil

A MEMBER'S STORY

Joseph Stokes

Joseph Stokes is a member of CAU and lives at Roselle 1. This month, Joseph volunteered at the Plaza Rehab in Elizabeth, NJ. Although Joseph is blind he has not let it stop him from fulfilling his dreams. Joseph taught himself how to play the piano, bagpipes, accordion, clarinet and the flute.

On March 11th, Joseph brought his piano to the nursing home where he played St. Patrick's Day tunes for an hour. This is something that he hopes to continue volunteering at the Plaza Rehab and other nursing homes.

If you know a member that should be recognized for what they do please contact:
